Professional Career

Simon Travis is Professor of Clinical Gastroenterology at the University of Oxford, Senior Clinical Research Fellow at the Kennedy Institute and Honorary Consultant Gastroenterologist at Oxford University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust. He is a former President of the European Crohn's & Colitis Organisation (ECCO). His research interests involve the integration of science and clinical practice, inflammation across tissues, endoscopic assessment of disease activity, predictive indices and novel therapy in inflammatory bowel disease. He leads the Cohorts in the Inflammation Across Tissues theme for the Oxford Biomedical Research Centre.
